

OFFICIAL OWNERSHIP STATEMENT
CHEYTAC USA, INC.
EFFECTIVE IMMEDIATELY

CheyTac USA, Inc., a Tennessee corporation (CAGE 9T5F4), is the sole and independent owner of the CheyTac brand, all associated trademarks, patents, intellectual property, and manufacturing rights for the M200 Intervention rifle and .408 / .375 CheyTac ammunition lines.

Ownership History

In March 2020, Campbell Arms Manufacturing LLC facilitated the acquisition of certain CheyTac-related assets and equity interests originally held by prior owners. Campbell Arms acted as the initial buyer under a Purchase Agreement dated March 30, 2020, and subsequently assigned all of its rights, title, interest in, and obligations under that agreement to CheyTac USA, Inc.

On August 30, 2021, the parties executed two definitive agreements that fully resolved and formalized the transaction:

- The Assignment and Assumption Agreement, under which Campbell Arms formally assigned and transferred all remaining rights and obligations to CheyTac USA, Inc.
- The Settlement Agreement and Release, which terminated all prior notes, security interests, and ongoing obligations and confirmed CheyTac USA, Inc. as the Buyer and sole owner of all Purchased Assets and Intellectual Property.

These agreements conclusively establish that CheyTac USA, Inc. is an independent Tennessee corporation that has owned 100% of the CheyTac brand and all related assets since March 30, 2020. Campbell Arms Manufacturing LLC holds no equity, ownership interest, or residual rights in CheyTac USA, Inc. or its products.

Any prior public announcements or press releases from 2020 that suggested otherwise have been superseded by the 2021 Assignment and Settlement Agreements.
